To use this electronic blue card, we suggest the following process:

- 1) The Scout contacts the Scoutmaster to request a blue card.
- 2) The Scoutmaster, using Adobe Acrobat Reader, fills out the full right side of the first page including a digital signature and the left side of the second page down through the email address of the counselor (from the council provided merit badge counselor list or from ScoutBook), and saves the document. The document name might include the Scout's name, merit badge, and troop number to make each unique such as Doe John First Aid 123.pdf.
- 3) The Scoutmaster emails the filled-out document to the Scout and to the merit badge counselor.
- 4) The Scout works with the merit badge counselor on the merit badge. As always, the Scout must have a buddy at all meetings with the counselor. For electronic meetings (Zoom, Facetime, Google Handouts, etc.) each Scout must have a buddy, such as a parent or sibling, with them.
- 5) When the Scout finishes the merit badge, the counselor uses Adobe Acrobat Reader to electronically sign the card in two places, fills in the date completed, and records any remarks for their records. For partials, the counselor does not sign the card but fills out the center part of the first page. The counselor saves the document and should keep this for their records (printed or electronic).
- 6) The counselor emails the updated document to the Scout and the unit leader (emails are on the blue card).
- 7) The unit leader uses Adobe Acrobat Reader to electronically sign the center of the second page and emails the document to the Scout for their records and to the unit's record keeper who prints the document, records the merit badge in Scoutbook or other records, and records on the unit's copy when it has been recorded and presented.
